JANUARY 30 - 31, 1917

AUCTIONEERS: CAREY M. JONES, FRED REPPERT, THEO MARTIN

SALE OF THE NORTHCOTE HERD

The Farmer Farm herd of Shorthorns was sold almost in its entirety to Walter J. Hill. Some good selections were made about the same time from other herds well known for high class Shorthorns—the result of these purchases was a strong foundation herd at Northcote, on which Mr. Hill used only very high class sires. A few imported cows and heifers and a good imported bull, all recently imported by Leslie Smith, St. Cloud, Minn., are a lot of valuable individuals and one of the many attractive features of the offering. Five bulls cataloged were bred by S. G. Eliason, Montevideo, Minn.

TERMS OF SALE

Cash or short time bankable note bearing 6 per cent, cattle at buyer's risk after bid off, but will be shipped with care to new owners. Certificate of health will be furnished with shipment of each animal over six months.

GUARANTEE

Mr. Hill is not selling a single animal that is known either by himself or Manager Bruce to be unreliable as a breeder or in any other respect, so carefully has the herd been culled. A reasonable guarantee will be made and will be stated sale day.

PEDIGREE

A certificate of registry in the extended form will be furnished for each lot except for small calves sold with dams—for these, application form will be furnished.

F. W. HARDING,
Manager of Sale.
